

PREVENT

TERRORISM

INFORMATION FOR LEARNERS

What do Community / British Values mean to you?

Extremism

Vocal or active opposition to fundamental British Values (above) and or calls for the death of members of our armed forces.

Radicalisation

Radicalisation is defined by the UK Government within this context as “the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and extremist ideologies associated with terrorist groups.”

Terrorist groups include:

Extreme political groups (far right) religious terrorist groups, animal rights terrorism and eco terrorism.

What are the warning signs of radicalisation?

Online behaviour includes:

Accessing extremist online content — Sympathetic to extremist ideologies and groups — Joining or trying to join an extremist organisation — Changing online identity

Outward appearance includes:

Not listening to other points of view — Abusive towards people who are different — Embracing conspiracy theories — Feeling persecuted — Changing friends and appearance — Converting to a new religion — Being secretive of movements — Increasingly argumentative — Distancing themselves from old friends — No longer doing

Are you worried about yourself or any other person who may be showing the warning signs of radicalisation?

Are you or do you know anyone who is:

Struggling with a sense of identity — Becoming distanced from their cultural or religious background — Questioning their place in society — Family issues — Experiencing a traumatic event — Experiencing racism or discrimination — Difficulty in interacting socially and lacking empathy — Difficulty in understanding the consequences of their actions — Low self-esteem

People who are vulnerable may be at risk of radicalisation
